REGULATIONS FOR SHOWS AND JUDGES

1. The WUBOX show rules are based on the current show rules of the FCI (<http://www.fci.be/medias/EXP-REG-en-11012.pdf>) as well as on the local kennel club organization of the respective organizing country of the WUBOX-SHOW.
2. Once a year the WUBOX-SHOW takes place. Normally in May.
3. All member countries of WUBOX can apply for the organization of the show. The application must include the submission of a dossier stating the location, the existing infrastructure (showground, parking, catering facilities).

The apply for organizing the WUBOX-SHOW must be sent to the Show- and Judge-Committee, at least one month before the General Assembly the year before the show.

4. The organizer agrees to transfer € 3,00 for each boxer listed in the catalogue to WUBOX. (except for entries in breeding groups, progeny groups and pair classes, as these boxers must already be entered in a regular class).

4.1 For the organizer it is mandatory to publish a program, a registration form and the submission of a catalogue. The publication can be in paper form or electronically.

4.2 The organizer must ensure that the chip number or tattoo number is given at the registration. See also point 10, WUBOX titles Ring of honor Saturday/Sunday

5. The show is awarded by the delegates during the WUBOX General Assembly, latest the year before the next show.

6. Judges.

6.1. Show organizer country may suggest judges from WUBOX judges list and FCI international judges from other countries.

6.1.1 The judge must be authorized by the FCI to judge the breed boxer.

6.1.2 The judge must be approved by the national boxer club or a country with a mutual/reciprocal agreement for the approval of judges in FCI.

Date: September 15, 2022

6.1.3. The judge must have judged a minimum of 3 years, from first time judging boxers in a national/international show.

6.1.4. The judges must have judged at least 3 Boxer Club Shows in 2 different countries outside his/her home country.

6.1.5. The judge is not allowed to judge boxers in a European and World Winner Show or an Annual Winner Show in the same year as WUBOX-SHOW. Just normal special shows and of course all breed shows are allowed.

6.1.6. The judges cannot judge in a WUBOX-SHOW in the next 2 years after judging on a WUBOX-SHOW.

6.1.7. All WUBOX member countries judges and FCI international judges from other countries are allowed to judge the WUBOX-SHOW.

No judges from the same country can get invited within the next year (except for the organizing country).

6.2. The Organizer of the WUBOX-SHOW must send Proposals for at least 6 Judges for the show, according to these rules. Together with this, the Organizer must send a short CV for each of the judges they have proposed.

These documents must be sent to the Committee latest 2 weeks after the hosting of the show is confirmed.

6.2.1 The Show-/Judges-Committee decides which judges may judge on the WUBOX-SHOW in question.

6.2.2 The Committee shall, within 2 weeks of receipt of proposals to judges, notify which judges may judge.

6.3. Invitation of judge procedure:

Signed contract should be received before registration is opened.

Judges traveling and judging expenses must be covered according with FCI rules as minimum.

6.4 The registration portal for the WUBOX-SHOW should be available as soon as possible, but at the latest 4 month before the registration deadline. Organizer of a show should at same time also publish information about national certificates awarding rules.

6.5 The registration for the show obliges the exhibitor to pay the entry fee and at the same time to accept the WUBOX-SHOW rules in the respective valid version.

6.6 After registration the exhibitor will be informed whether his dog(s) has (have) been accepted. The necessary show documents will be handed over on the day of the show.

Date: September 15, 2022

6.7 Dogs not listed in the catalogue may not be judged, unless their inclusion in the catalogue was omitted due to an oversight by the show management.

6.8 Approval at every dog show, the well-being and health of the dogs must take precedence. The exhibitors are responsible for the welfare of the dogs at a FCI international dog show. It is forbidden to expose a dog to a situation that can be dangerous for its health and welfare, such as for example leaving it in the car in excessively hot or cold weather and/or treating it in a cruel manner. Violation of this ruling will result in exclusion from the ongoing and future dog shows according show ethic codes of WUBOX. Appendix 1. (Ethic codes).

6.9 Only dogs that are registered in an FCI-approved stud book or its register are admitted. The show management is entitled to reject entries without giving reasons.

6.10 Anyone who knowingly gives false information, makes changes or interventions to his dog or tolerates such that are likely to deceive the judge will be excluded from the event. Ratings, titles and prizes awarded at the show may be revoked. In case of recurrence a temporary or permanent show ban can be imposed by the WUBOX Board of Directors.

6.11 Boxers cropped and/or docked, born after the 1st of January 2013 are not allowed to be shown.

7. The judge's decision is final. An objection against it is inadmissible. Any undue criticism of a judge decision will result in the loss of all awarded ratings, titles and prizes, as well as immediate expulsion from the show. Exclusion from all later events can also be imposed by the WUBOX Board (proposal to the WUBOX Board by the show management).

8. If there is a formal inaccuracy, whether caused by the organizer, judge or exhibitor, every exhibitor concerned has the right to object to this. If the organizer of the show becomes aware of a formal inaccuracy on its own initiative, it is obliged to initiate the necessary investigations and steps. Objections to formal inaccuracies must be submitted to the show management on the day of the exhibition. Each objection must be accompanied by 200 EUR fee, which is forfeited in favor of the show management if the objection is rejected. The show director will decide on the appeal after hearing all parties involved. This decision can be appealed against in writing (registered letter) to the WUBOX Board within 8 days. The decision of the WUBOX Board is final.

9. Exhibitors themselves are responsible for the timely presentation of the boxers. Each exhibitor is liable for damages caused by his dog.
