

Regulations of the Show

The show will be held in Fontvieille (France) on may 6 and 7, 2023

ENTRIES CLOSURE ON 2023/23/04 by via the internet on <https://cedia.fr>

DOGS ENTRANCE

- Until 8 AM.
- Beginning of evaluations 10 AM. on Saturday, 9 AM. on Sunday

PRESENTATION

It is specified that the dog can only be presented by a single person, which excludes any "double Handling". It is prohibited by any other person to call or to excite the dog outside the ring with any object, whistle or another gesture. The judge is responsible for enforcing this rule either by ring commissioner or by the organizers of the exhibition.

He may, in the event of non-compliance, disqualify the dog and record the reason in his judge's notebook. A certain tolerance may however be accepted by the judge, the only master in his ring.

CLASS DIVISION

MINOR PUPPY class (BABY) - from 3 to 6 months (with valid rabies vaccination for travel and by country conditions)

WORKING class - from 15 months and over (only with FCI working certificate). To enter a dog in working class, the entry form must be accompanied by a copy of the FCI compulsory certificate, WCC (Working Class Certificate). The certificate must be obtained before the closing date of the exhibition.

CHAMPION class - Only boxers who have won a national or international title based on several claims (for example: International Champion, National Champions of the respective FCI countries) can be entered in the Champion Class. Must provide a copy of the certificate, in its absence, the dog will be registered automatically in open class. The certificate must be obtained before the closing date of the exhibition.

VETERAN class - from 8 years and over.

Exhibitors must be able to justify the day of the exhibition of their dog's career by presenting, if the organizing committee so requests, the working book and the original documents concerning their dog's career.

Progeny group - Composed of the reproductive present and at least 5 products all present in individual class. Products from at least 3 litters with at least 2 females, for the males. 2 litter products minimum for females.

Breeding group - Composed of 3 subjects, at least, of the same color already engaged in individual class whatever it is and from the same breeding.

Entries for these last 2 classes can be taken on the spot before the start of the honor ring.

White Boxers

Will be judged in a single class, age and sex confused, without detailed judgment, without qualifier, nor ranking, by all the judges, at the start of the ring of honor. Only the best will be rewarded.

ENTRY FEES

They must be paid at the same time as the commitment (on <https://cedia.fr>)

By registering for a WUBOX exhibition, the exhibitor undertakes to:

- respect the rules of the WUBOX exhibition,
  - have his dogs' microchips checked for functionality.
- The commitment will remain with the organizing company itself if the dog cannot be presented.

REFUSAL OR EXCLUSIONS

a) commitments: the organization reserves the right to refuse all commitments that she thinks she shouldn't admit and repay them even after having accepted.

b) dogs: On their entry the dogs will be examined by the service veterinarian and may be refused: dogs appearing ill, dogs with a cold, dogs with skin disease, dogs that are blind or cripples, dangerous dogs, monorchid dogs, cryptorchids or atrophies (these cannot be judged).

The decision of the veterinary service is final. In these different cases, commitments will not be refunded. Dogs not listed in the catalog cannot be judged, unless their inclusion in the catalog has been omitted by the committee of organization (proof of commitment will be requested).

JUDGEMENTS

The judge's decision is final. An objection against it is inadmissible. Any undue criticism of a judge decision will result in the loss of all awarded ratings, titles and prizes, as well as immediate expulsion from the show.

Exclusion from all later events can also be imposed by the WUBOX Board (proposal to the WUBOX Board by the show management).

In no case, a dog absent at the timing of the judgments will only be considered later. First, all dogs will be judged and qualified. The 4 best of each class (unspecified of the classification) will be selected for the ring of honor of the afternoon.

The qualifiers awarded will be:

For the minor and puppy classes: Very Promising, Promising or Fairly Promising.

For all other classes: Excellent, Very Good, Good, Sufficient or Disqualified or cannot be judged.

HONOR RING

From 2.30 PM. (or later at the end of all judgments). In the main ring, the members of the jury will examine the white boxers, breeding groups and progeny groups.

The responsible of the pre-ring of honor will verify systematically the identification number or the tattoo of boxers qualified for the ring of honor.

Class by class the selected subjects will be called in the honor ring to be ranked and receive their rewards.
